

As I drive through the smaller communities of Colorado I find the ability to hear the Klove network on translator stations to be invaluable. Please don't allow the proposed low power FM stations to replace or restrict the translators that Klove uses.